HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITON NO. 24650 OF 1995

O R D E R:

On 26-09-2006 the learned counsel for the petitioner sought for adjournment. The case was accordingly adjourned. Even on 24.10.2006, the learned counsel for the petitioner was called absent and Sri Taddi Nageswara Rao, learned counsel for respondent-corporation submitted that the matter has become infructuous as the petitioner after filing of the writ petition, was retrenched after following the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. As the learned counsel for the petitioner was not present, the writ petition was adjourned to 27-10-2006 on which date, the matter could not be taken up. Today also, the learned counsel for the petitioner is absent.

Having regard to the aforementioned circumstances, I have no other option except to record the statement of the learned counsel for the respondent-corporation that the writ petition has become infructuous as the petitioner appears to have been retrenched after filing of the writ petition.

In view of the above, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs
